

Special Olympics
 Wisconsin
 Be a fan™

Support. Volunteer. Compete.

Please join us at the 2009 Coaches Summit Saturday, January 17 - UW Oshkosh

Who's invited? All SOWI Coaches – “veterans” & “newbies” alike!

What's in it for me? Networking, Idea-sharing and Recertification!

Where's it at? University of Wisconsin – Oshkosh Campus

Housing is available through Gruenhagen Conference Center at the following rates: $35/night includes bed linens and towel or $25/night, bring your own linens and towel. Reservations are “on your own” by calling Gruenhagen at 920-424-1106.

When am I needed? Saturday, January 17th, 10am – 3pm.
 9:30am check-in, lunch will be provided.

Why's this important? It's an opportunity for SOWI coaches around the state to come together to share coaching tools and discuss topics like sportsmanship; coaching ethics; and SOWI policies. It gives all coaches an opportunity to work together towards a common goal - developing a healthy coaching philosophy, and ultimately impacting the athlete experience in a positive way.

Topics as they relate to you, the coach:

- A. Coaching Ethics – Establishment, Education and Implementation
- B. Qualifying Score Reporting & Standards
- C. Advancement Policy and the factors that influence eligibility
- D. Expectations of a quality training program –
 What is a quality experience for a coach?
 What is a quality experience for an athlete?
- E. How to create and implement a Take Home Training Plan

Registration Deadline: Tuesday, January 6, 2009

Via mail (this bottom portion): Fox Valley Area, 2339 W Wisconsin Ave - Appleton, WI 54914

Via email (include info from below): merdmann@specialolympicswisconsin.org

Via fax (this bottom portion): 920-731-3691

My Name: _____ The Agency I work with: _____

The sports I coach or help coach: _____

My Address: _____ City _____ Zip _____

My Phone number: _____ My email: _____

I will be applying for Recertification ____yes ____no