

Be a fan of fun.

Let me win.

But if I cannot win,

Let me be brave in the attempt.

Adopt an Athlete

Help Special Olympics Wisconsin celebrate its 30th anniversary by adopting one of the 2,000 athletes competing in Stevens Point for the 2009 Special Olympics State Summer Games.

Here's how you can adopt an athlete:

- ★ Visit participating area businesses and help them Adopt an Athlete by dropping extra change into the special canister.
- ★ Visit SpecialOlympicsWisconsin.org to Adopt an Athlete for $30 and receive your own adoption certificate.
- ★ Mail your $30 check to Special Olympics Wisconsin, Adopt an Athlete, 5900 Monona Dr., Suite 301, Madison, WI 53716 and receive your own adoption certificate.

(You may adopt more than one athlete at $30 each)

Here's how to raise $30

Businesses:

- ★ Contact the Stevens Point Area Convention & Visitors Bureau to obtain a canister to display at your business, 715.344.2556.
- ★ Ask your employees to Adopt an Athlete or create a company-wide competition to chip in and support.

Schools:

- ★ Challenge classrooms to Adopt an Athlete using canisters to collect change.
- ★ Encourage the PTO to get involved and have a canister available at school events.
- ★ Consider having sports teams or student organizations chip in to Adopt an Athlete.

Organizations:

- ★ Invite a Special Olympics representative to talk about Adopt an Athlete at your meeting.
- * Need some more help? We can help you brainstorm.*

Help Support 30 Years of Special Olympics in Stevens Point.

The past 30 years of Special Olympics Wisconsin Summer Games in Stevens Point has truly been due to the hard work and dedication of the local businesses, organizations and volunteers. Your work has allowed Special Olympics to provide children and adults with cognitive disabilities opportunities to develop physical fitness, demonstrate courage, experience joy and participate in the sharing of gifts, skills and friendship with their families, other Special Olympics athletes and the community.
